BURGESS SHOWED A LENIENT SPIRIT IN TO-DAY'S HEARINGS

Bryal Conner of Washington, Pa., was the first prisoner before Burgess Dunlap this morning. He was charged with drunkenness, and on account of him being from a dry town and that the former home of the burgess, the man was discharged and told to go back to the dry town and stay.

Peter Stewart came up from Allegheny and got too much booze and started in to clean up on the police force. He was landed in the lockup and for his pugilistic accomplishments he was soaked $5.00 and costs or $7.50 in all or five days to the lockup.

Charley Smith, a boiler maker from Braddock couldn't resist the temptation and got drunk. He said he did no harm to anyone and wanted to be turned loose. His plea was effective.

Polly Litzsky, an oft offender, but a good fellow when sober, was turned loose and advised not to appear again. John Angeles appeared with two big black eyes. The other fellow wasn't caught and the burgess postponed the hearing until Monday evening.

A. Frazier made information against A. Gorsk & Co. for slaughtering beeves within the borough limits. The firm was fined $8.00 which they paid.

Peter Swartz was picked up under the new hucksters law and fined $7.50. He paid under protest.

WANT TUBERCULOSIS LAW LET ALONE

The Pennsylvania society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, according to a statement sent out from state headquarters in Philadelphia, is making vigorous protest against the repeal of the Housing Code of 1913. This law is well designed to correct many flagrant, unsanitary and bad housing conditions that are known to be prejudicial to public health and to the prevention of tuberculosis, but has never been given a trial.

A letter has been sent to each member of the State Legislature stating the interest of the society in the putting into operation of the Housing Code of 1913. It most strongly urges that Bill No. 294 which would repeal the Housing Act of 1913, and Bill No. 295 which would substitute laws distinctly less efficient, be not passed and that measures be taken whereby the Act of 1913 shall be put into immediate effect.

This action is taken in accordance with a resolution passed, at its recent meeting, by the Board of Directors of the State Society.

A Big Sports Event in Charleroi This Evening

Tony Bender and Johnny Celmar have finished training for their six round bout at the Charleroi rink tonight. Celmar has knocked out fourteen men in his last sixteen fights and says he will make Bender the fifteenth but Bender, the veteran of 570 ring battles asserts that such talk does not scare him. Sports are looking forward to this as the hardest fought battle ever staged in the Monongahela valley, as both men are reported in the pink of condition and the fans will see some slugging with clever boxing combined. The management has arranged a preliminary card in keeping with the main bout. Fritz Elsner will meet Special Delivery Tully who has met such men as Eddie Wimler, Johnny Kirk, Johnny Ray and has a clean cut victory over Joe Kattela.

In the second bout Ike Palmer of Fayette City meets Patsy Gilmore of Charleroi, while in the opening event, Kid Smith of Newell will meet the clever little boxer Trixie Brennen of Pittsburgh.

64c SALE GETS COUNCILMAN IN TROUBLE

The sale of 64 cents worth of toweling by his department store to the borough of Vandergrift in alleged violation of the act of 1907, which provides that it shall be unlawful for any burgess or borough councilman to be interested directly or indirectly in the sale of furnishings or goods to a borough, may result in the loss of Councilman Van T. Shepler's seat in the borough council. Yesterday quo warranto proceedings were instituted in the court of common pleas of Westmoreland county by Attorney J. Hilliary Keenan, representing several citizens of Vandergrift to have Shepler's seat declared vacant.

The petition alleged that Shepler who is president of council, is interested in the Van T. Shepler Co., and charges that in December 1914, that company sold to the borough eight yards of toweling at eight cents a yard and that in the following month the bill was approved and paid. Mr. Shepler attaches little importance to the action brought against him.

This same law was tried out in Monessen on three former councilmen, Messrs. George H. Stevens, W. A. Miller and L. X. Ely some years ago, but the proceedings proved a boomerang and the parties who entered the suit had the costs to pay and the councilmen were exonerated. The Vandergrift case may bring about the same result if the accused can prove that there was no intentions to graft as was proven in the Monessen cases.

MONESSEN WOMEN LIKELY GOING TO HARRISBURG NEXT WEEK

The Woman Suffrage bill is expected to come up in the Senate at Harrisburg Monday for first reading in regular process. The bill is scheduled for second reading on Tuesday and third and final reading Wednesday. A large number of ladies, members of the Woman Suffrage party, will be in Harrisburg this week and all who can are urged to go.

There will be no lobying, it is stated, but the Senate will be thrown open early for the especial accommodation of the women. The Woman Suffrage party of Pennsylvania are planning to observe "Attic Day" the last week of March and each local organization can select the day that suits conditions best.

The women will have a special room in each town and will solicit pieces of old furniture, old clothing, laces and other articles of use and even curiosities. A local sale of these goods will be sought in each town but where they can't be disposed of, the state organization is pledged to find a market.

The Monessen Woman Suffrage party will meet at 8 o'clock Monday evening in the M. E. church for the transaction of important business.

The Spring Conference of the Woman Suffrage party will be held in Harrisburg immediately after the readings of the Suffrage Bill, to outline plans for the next six months of the campaign.

BILLY SAYS HE HAS RUM ON A SURE RUN

"Rum is on the run" declared Billy Sunday in an attack against the liquor interests last night in his Philadelphia campaign, "and if I stayed here much longer, hundreds of saloons would have to close up."

At the end of his sermon on "What Must I Do to be Saved" 367 men and women hit the trail. This number added to 233 converts at the afternoon service made a total of 600 for the day and a grand total of 35,135 so far during the campaign. Fifteen thousand dollars, Sunday said, had been collected and turned over to local charities.

Justice Was Exonerated

The grand jury at Uniontown ignored the bill in the prosecution charging Justice of the Peace J. W. Wilhelm of Dunbar, with malfeasance in office. Information against Connellsville merchants charged with violations of the Blue Laws by selling on Sunday in the recent crusade there has been made before Justice of the Peace Wilhelm because the Connellsville alderman would not take the cases. One of the alleged offenders, Ben Cusano, sought to have Wilhelm indicted because he is said to have refused to have given him a hearing within 72 hours after the information was made. The costs were placed upon Cusano.

A FREE BRIDGE

Charleroi business men have on several occasions taken the initiative to have the bridge which spans the river at Lock 4 made a free structure by the joint counties, Westmoreland and Washington, and while there were times that the proposition met with a cool reception on this side of the river and while at such times there was just cause, we can see no reason at this time why the people residing on this side, including merchants and workmen should offer any very serious objections.

When the project was advanced on former occasions this side of the river had under way plans for obtaining some improved highways which meant an enormous cost to Westmoreland county and people interested in this work feared to advocate the freeing of the bridge at the expense of the county lest every object fail.

Now that the roads have either been built or provided for, and the demand for a free bridge is becoming greater every year, we cannot see why the people from this side of the river should hesitate to join in for a mutual movement of this kind and urge upon Westmoreland county to provide funds at a near future date with which to take over its share of the bridge.

Monessen people need not hesitate from a purely commercial standpoint for this town has reached the age and stage where it ought to be strong enough and great enough to compete with any town in this section and furthermore we must think of the hundreds of workmen in the big mills who are living and still want to live elsewhere. It is our duty to make the burdens of life as easy for him as possible. There is no use to talk about penning a man on one side of the river if he doesn't want to stay there. A high car fare from Monessen to Charleroi, or from Charleroi back to Monessen does no one any good but the bridge company and the street car company and it is a great wrong to impose upon labor a hardship for the benefit of wealthy corporations. Let us turn in and help lighten the burdens of the working man, the brawn and sinew of civilization. If Monessen has a claim upon the wage earner, let us keep him here by providing a more pleasant and inexpensive place for him to live and not by hampering him in traveling to and from work.

TAX ON NEWSBOYS

Nobody can accuse Gov. Brumbaugh and the Legislature of being after the big fellows. Quite the contrary, they are after the little fellows this time, and with a vengeance, too.

It is the boys from six to fourteen years that will have to get off the earth if the Child Labor bill becomes a law. Ever since Penn met the Indians back under that old elm tree where Philadelphia now stands and ever since the state had a constitution as a free and independent state, boys have been permitted to sell papers on the streets. It is now proposed to deprive them of that right and if a boy is caught with a bundle of papers under his arm, he is likely to be branded as a criminal and if the man who sold them to him can be captured, he too, is made amenable to the law.

Poor little newsboy. It is for you to get ready to shut up shop. Get ready to sell out your route to some boy 16 years of age or over, and if you can't find anyone that age who wants to relieve you, it's back to mother or marbles after school hours.

The common sense and sanity of this law is hard to fathom. It must resolve itself to the fact that the Legislature wants to do something. People have elected men to enact legislation and they must keep busy. But of all the laws that have been introduced and advocated this year, the Child Labor bill is the most freakish.

THEY CAN, BUT DON'T

According to Mrs. Essey Ingersoll Apperman, thinker and relative of Bob Ingersoll, we shall have ideally happy marriages only when woman is allowed to propose to man.

Of course, woman is already so "allowed." It is a mistake to say that woman hasn't the right to propose to man. She has. Every [illegible]

has a right to march up to any single man and ask that he marry her. Let no one seek to deceive woman as to this right. Let no man think he's exempt from such peril.

But, throughout nature, it is the rule that the male make the advances, and before there's any change as to humans, man will have to be consulted. The girl who "throws herself" at a fellow is a candidate for perpetual maidenhood, unless she has a large visible stock of the medium of exchange. There are few men who will marry anything for money. Men, as a rule, demand coyness and hold the proposing sort of girl cheaply. Heaven help the husband who looks upon his wife as one of the something-for-nothing propositions.

FOOD ADULTERATION

The question of food adulteration is now occupying public attention more than ever before, and laws are formed in every state to prevent the sale of adulterated food or drink. The following letter volutarily given years ago, speaks volumes for the purity of Speer's Port Grape Wine. It has been one of the fundamental principles of the Speer N. J. Wine Co., for over fifty years to produce nothing but absolutely pure wines.

New York, June 3, 1884.

Mr. Alfred Speer, Passaic, N. J.—

Dear Sir:—The result of my investigations of your Wines convinces me that they are perfectly pure and free from foreign or deleterious substances; the best I have ever tasted, and it is all that can be desired in a pure Port Wine. I speak as a physician. Your Climax Brandy fills a want long felt in the profession.

Latin Names Needed.

What is called a cruller in New York is called a doughnut in Boston, and what is called a cruller in Boston is called a doughnut in New York. And so on through the list. There is no more certainty or fixity about the popular names of dishes than there is about the popular names of flowers and birds. At least thirty different flowers are known by the name of "mayflower" in the United States. The mayflower of New England is the arbutus of New York and the wax myrtle of the south. To obtain certainty in such matters it is necessary to have a scientific classification and a Latin name. When you speak to a botanical gent about a "mayflower" he knows not what you mean, but if you refer to the Epignea repens he knows exactly what you are talking about. Consequently we shall never have any certainty about what a dish is until we have a regular scientific classification, with Latin names, for all dishes. In that case the "botanical name" of Vermont hasty pudding would be something like mushfus cornmealensis and no chance for controversy.—New York Mail.

A Long Way to the Other One.

Count Karolyi, according to the Vossische Zeitung, returning to his castle in Hungary, met one of his old servants who had just been sent back wounded from the war.

"My good man, I hear you fought so valiantly at the front," said the count, "I would like to give you some reward. What shall it be?"

The old servant replied:

"Well, if you insist upon it, sir, just give me enough kronen coins to reach from one ear to the other."

"That seems to be a very little reward," replied the count, smiling at the odd regest.

"It's enough for me, sir," answered the servant modestly.

As the count was beginning to comply with the strange request he noticed that the servant had only one ear and remarked upon the fact.

"Yes, sir. I left the other ear on the battlefield at Shabatz," answered the modest man.

Fire Averages.

Following is an extract from an article in Farm and Fireside on preventing and fighting fires:

Fires in our homes are so frequent that the insurance companies tell us that we have about one chance in sixty of being burnt out some time in the course of a lifetime. But in the same breath they tell us that more than half the fires could be prevented if people understood the commonest causes of them and knew just what to do when a fire starts. Smokers are responsible for thousands of fires, and rats and mice cause many others by nibbling at sulphur tipped matches. Fires which start in closets are often caused by matches being left in clothes or by oily cloths which have been stored away. Many of the floor polishing mixtures contain highly explosive oils and spontaneous combustion may start from a nest of these cleaning cloths if placed in a closet near the chimney.

Pigs' Feet In the Pit.

Salaries at the early New York theaters were extremely small. But if the salaries were small so were the prices of admission. One shilling, 12½ cents, let you into the gallery or the pit, and if you didn't have the shilling the mercenary management forced you to pay 13 cents. So the boys got the habit of changing their money at a fishwoman's on the corner, who for 15 cents obligingly gave them a shilling and a pig's foot. They handed in the shilling at the door and during the course of the evening presented the well picked bone to the management by way of some unfortunate in the pit or on the stage.

Ordinance No. 312

AN ORDINANCE Regulating Public Travel on all public streets, Bridges, on the Squares and in Public places, in the Borough of Monessen, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, and providing a penalty for the violation thereof.

BE IT ORDAINED and enacted by the Borough of Monessen, in Council assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same.

Sec. 1.- All Motor or other vehicles traveling on the public streets or public squares in the Borough of Monessen shall keep to the right hand side of said street or square if possible at least two feet from the curb.

Sec. 2. All Motor and other vehicles meeting each other on the public streets in the Borough of Monessen, bridges or parks, shall keep to the right and pass each other by keeping on the right hand side of said street.

Sec. 3. All Motor and other vehicles overtaking other vehicles on the public streets in the Borough of Monessen and passing the same from the rear shall keep to the left of said vehicles.

Sec. 4. All drivers or persons having charge of any vehicles on the public streets shall before turning the corner of any street, or turning from or starting from or stopping at the curb on any of the said streets, shall first see that there is sufficient space free from other vehicles so that such turn, stop or start may be made with safety, and before making said turn, stop or start, shall give a plainly visible or audible signal.

Sec. 5. No motor or other vehicle shall turn on a public street where it may become necessary to back said vehicle, but shall go around the block or to a street sufficiently wide to make said turn without backing.

Sec. 6. All motor and other vehicles turning to the right onto another public street, shall, in passing upon said cross-street, turn the corner as near the curb as practical.

Sec. 7. All motor or other vehicles turning to the left into another street, shall pass to the right of, and beyond the center of the intersection of said street before turning.

Sec. 8. No motor or other vehicles shall stop with its left side to the curb.

Sec. 9. No person having charge of any public cart, wagon or other vehicles shall drive or back the same onto any of the side walks in the Borough of Monessen, except as hereinafter provided, or stop the same on any of the side-walks or intersection of streets so as to hinder or obstruct the travel along such sidewalks or intersections of streets, or place any vehicle crosswise in streets, except to load thereon or to unload therefrom; but in no case shall it be lawful for said vehicles to remain crosswise of any street for a longer period of time than actually necessary for such purpose, but it shall be lawful for the owner or occupant of any building on any street on which the rails of any street railway company are laid so close to the curb as to prevent the keeping of a vehicle in the carriage way in front of said building without intereference of passing cars of any such street railway company to occupy for such vehicles during business hours, so much of the sidewalk as may be necessary for such vehicles, provided, that substantial space be provided for the passage of pedestrians.

Sec. 10. No vehicle shall stop or stand within the intersection of any streets, nor within twenty feet of any street corner.

Sec. 11. No vehicle shall pass between a street car and a curb while the street car is taking on or discharging passengers.

Sec. 12. When two or more vehicles shall arrive at the street intersections at the same time, the vehicle to the right of any driver shall have the right of way.

Sec. 13. The officers and men of the Fire Department with their Fire Apparatus when going to or on duty, at or returning from a fire, all ambulances and officers, men with vehicles of Police Department, shall have the right of way through any street or through any procession whatsoever.

Section 14. Before backing a vehicle, warning must be given by the driver, and while backing constant care must be taken not to collide with any pedestrian, vehicle or thing behind, backing to refer only for the purpose of loading and unloading.

Sec. 15. Every motor vehicle shall be provided when in use with good and sufficient brakes, and with a horn, bell or other signal device. Motor vehicles shall, from one hour after sunset until one hour before sunrise, show at least two white lights, visible not less than two hundred (200) feet, in the direction in which the Motor vehicle is proceeding; Provided however, That motor cycles need display only one white light visible in the direction in which they are proceeding. Every operator of a motor vehicle shall sound his horn, bell or signal device, giving reasonable warning of his approach, whenever necessary to insure the safety of other users of the public street, and also when approaching a street or street crossing, dangerous curve, within the Borough limits, where the proper authorities shall have erected signs easily readable from the public streets bearing thereon the words "Danger," "Blow Your Horn," or some similar sign. The unnecessary sounding of bells, horns or other signal devices, the unnecesary use of muffler cut-outs, or their use when approaching or passing any other vehicle or animal of draft or burden, is prohibited. When signaled to do so, by the driver of any horse or other animal of draft or burden, the operator of a motor vehicle shall stop, and, if circumstances require it, shall stop his engine until the danger has been avoided. When overtaken by any other vehicle legally driven traveling at a greater speed, the operator or driver of any motor vehicle, when signaled to do so, shall turn reasonably to the right of the center of the street, allowing the other vehicle free passage to the left.

Sec. 16. No motor vehicle, except motor cycles, shall be operated upon any public street unless the number tags are displayed conspicuously one on the front and the other on the rear of the motor vehicle, in such manner that they may be easily read. They shall at all times be parallel to the axle of the motor vehicle, and shall be kept free from oil, grease, dirt or other substances likely to impair thei rlegibility; and shall not be defaced in any manner; and between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise the rear number tag shall be illuminated, so that the number can be plainly distinguished: Provided, however, That motor cyles must display, on the rear thereof, the plate or marker furnished to said vehicles, and to be so fastened as to be entirely unobstructed, and to be kept reasonably clean.

Sec. 17. No person under sixteen years of age, whether the owner of a motor vehicle or not, shall operate any motor vehicle upon any of the public streets, squares or open courts within the Borough limits.

Sec. 18. No person shall operate a motor vehicle on any of the public streets or thoroughfares within the Borough recklessly, or at a speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the width, traffic and use of the public streets, or such as to endanger property, or the life or limb of any person; but no person shall drive a motor vehicle at a rate of speed exceeding one (1) mile four (4) minutes; and no person shall drive a motor vehicle, having solid tires and weighing more than five thousand (5,000) pounds, gross maximum weight of vehicle and load combined, at a greater rate of sped than one (1) mile in four (4) minutes; and no person shall drive a motor vehicle, having solid tires and weighing over ten thousand (10.000) pounds, gross maximum weight of vehicle and load combined, at a greater speed than one (1) mile in five (5) minutes; and no person shall drive a motor vehicle having solid tires and weighing over fifteen thousand (15,000) pound, gross maximum weight of vehicle and load combined, at a greater rate of speed than one (1) mile in six (6) minutes.

Sec. 19. The Police Department shall have all power in relation to the management of public travel upon the streets of the Borough of Monessen, as well as in Parks and on Public Squares; and the Chief of Police shall have authority to make and endorse rules and regulations regarding public travel, not inconsistent with law and the provisions of this ordinance.

Sec. 20. The Chief of Police is hereby given authority to close the whole or any part of any public street, alley or highway, to public travel when in his judgment such public travel upon said streets or highways would be dangerous to pedestrians or from any other cause whatsoever.

Sec. 21. Any person operating a motor vehicle when intoxicated shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, nor more than Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars, or imprisonment in the County Jail not exceeding thirty (30) days for each said offense.

Sec. 22. All operators of motor vehicles shall, upon request or signal of any constable or police officer, who shall be in uniform or shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority, stop and exhibit their registration certificate or license, if so required, and shall furnish to any legally constituted authority, all information in their possession as to the identity of the operator or owner of any motor vehicle.

Sec. 23. The Constable and police officers of the said Borough of Monessen may arrest, upon view and without warrant, any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance; but such officer shall forthwith make and file with the Justice of the Peace of Burgess, before whom the person arrested is taken, an affidavit setting forth in detail the alleged violation of the section of the ordinance complained of, and furnish a copy to the person arrested, if he, she or they demand same, copy to contain the section only that the person is charged of violating.

RAILROADS TAKE AN OPEN COURSE

Frankly Informing the Public on Important Operating Questions.

Harrisburg, March 5.

If the old-time legislator of, say thirty or forty years ago, were to come back to life he would be almost stunned with amazement as he contemplated the fight which the railroads are putting up to bring about the repeal of the Full Crew Law.

The railroads are not fighting the organized trainmen, they are not hurling vituperation at them in the old-time way; they are simply telling them and the public that the law is working an economic evil which neither the people at large or the railroads can afford.

There is no effort to deceive, no effort to lobby, the railroads are simply playing the game with all their cards above the board. They are taking the people into their confidence, and there are many indications that the people appreciate the fact and are making diligent efforts to ascertain whether the Full Crew is a benefit or a detriment.

Possibly the strongest argument that is being put forth by the railroads is that if they undermanned their trains they would be the heaviest sufferers. They frankly ask the people whether it would be likely that they would work directly against their own interests and the safety of their own property. They say: "A freight train of one locomotive at $25,000 and 75 cars at $1000 each would represent $100,000 in rolling stock Is it reasonable to assume that a railroad would jeopardize the safety of that great capital investment to save $2.75, the wage of an extra brakeman? Would it risk the loss of $100,000 worth of property to save $2.75?"

It is contended that railroads in Pennsylvania and New Jersey last year paid out $2,000,000 for unnecessary brakemen. It is then pointed out that with that much money the railroads could have purchased 200 steel coaches, thus giving a greater degree of safety to passengers, or eighty locomotives, or 67,000 tons of new rail, or they could have block signalled 800 miles of track or eliminated 65 grade crossings.

CHANCE FOR USEFUL WORK

Money Taken by Full Crew Laws Would Give Year's Work to 1745 Men.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 5.

How much greater benefit the people as a whole would get out of the $2,000,000 a year now paid in wages to superfluous brakemen by the railroads of Pennsylvania and New Jersey appears in some figures just prepared by the joint committee representing these railroads. For example, if the money now used to purchase of $1 locomotives, it would give employment for a year to 1745 men. Of these, 870 would be in the locomotive shops. The other 875 would get employment in steel mills, at iron furnaces and brass foundries in mining coal and manufacturing coke, in mining iron and in other lines of activity.

Should the $2,000,000 be expended in purchase of 2000 freight cars, employment for a year would be furnished to 1400 men in building the cars and in getting out the materials necessary for their construction.

Again, if the money was used to purchase 200 steel passenger cars, a year's work would be provided for 1798 men in the car shops and in the industries concerned in the preparation of the materials necessary for their construction.

Any such use of the $2,000,000, now an economic waste as used in hire of men forced upon the railroads by edict of law, but for whom there is no real service, would turn the $2,000,000 a year so wasted to useful purposes, give productive work to men now idle, and as they received and expended the money, would stimulate industrial and business activities in hundreds of other directions.

Sweet Return.

She (tearfully)—Henry, our engagement is at an end, and I wish to return to you everything you have ever given me.

He (cheerily)—Thanks, Blanche! You may begin at once with the kisses.

They are married now.—London Telegraph

WOMAN GETS IN BAD WITH UNCLE SAM

Morgantown, W. Va., March 5—Married but advertising for a husband and carrying on a correspondence which resulted in an agreement to marry again, when the prospective partner had forwarded funds for transportation—such was the course pursued by Mrs. Robert Rotuna, formerly Miss Ina Stoker, according to statements made in the hearing before Commissioner Glen Hunter here yesterday. She was arrested yesterday morning by United States Deputy Marshall John D. Moore and Chief of Police Jack Yohe at the home of Geo. Wells, where she was visiting. The warrant charged Mrs. Robert Rotunno, alias Pauline Palmer, with fradulent use of the mails. She was arraigned before Commissioner Hunter for a hearing, conducted by Assistant District Attorney J. J. P. O'Brien of Wheeling. A postoffice inspector who had charge of the case was here with evidence in the case. Mrs. Rotuna gave bond in the sum of $1,000 for her appearance before the United States court at Martinsburg on April 6.

Mrs. Rotuna, according to her admissions yesterday, inserted in a "matrimonial paper" at Jacksonville, Florida, an advertisement, with her photograph, in which it was set forth that she was a widow, her husband having died after two weeks of married life, and that she desired to secure another suitable companion. The description attached to the photograph, told of her size, age, color of hair and eyes and traits of character.

The advertisement brought answers—one answer at least, which resulted in a correspondence between the two and finally an agreement to marry. This occurred last May. Pauline Palmer—such was the name used in the correspondence—wrote that she was ready to join her future lord and master, but that she had no funds to make the trip. Some time later, she received $40 by registered mail, but she had changed her mind about taking a second husband, and did not leave her home here. She forgot to return the $40. The disappointed sucker gave the matter into the hands of the postoffice authorities.

Mrs. Rotunno explained to the officials yesterday that at the time she was making these arrangements, her domestic relations were not the most pleasant, and that she seriously thought of getting herself a new husband but had later changed her mind. When asked how she expected to marry when she had a husband, she explained that according to her idea, she could change her name and marry in another state without violating the law. Her husband was present during this recital and apparently had never previously been informed of his wife's correspondence and plans. He was certain that he had not heard of his death two weeks after his marriage. It is stated that Mrs. Rotunno had carried an advertisement in another "matrimonial" sheet, published in California, and that she had carried on correspondence with persons who answered the correspondence.

NO MORE RUNNING SORES

Craig's Drug Store Sells an Ointment Called San Cura That is a Positive Relief

It matters not how old, persistent or poisonous the sore is, San Cura Ointment, the powerful antiseptic, will draw out the poison and promptly heal the sore.

So sure of this are the owners, the Thompson Medical company that they have authorized Craig's Drug store to return the price if San Cura Ointment doesn't do all this paper says it will do. No fairer offer was ever made.

B. D. Dutton, Titusville, Pa., says: "My arm was covered with twenty-four running sores and swollen to twice its natural size. San Cura Ointment relieved the pain, drew out the poison and healed the arm in an incredibly short time. It is the greatest compound for healing I ever used."

The healing powers of San Cura Ointment are little short of marvelous. It gives relief and is guaranteed to help salt rheum, eczema, bleeding, itching or protruding piles, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, chapped hands and chilblains. In cuts, burns, scalds and bruises, it allays pain and aids healing. 25c and 50c a jar.

This column is devoted to the expression of the opinion of our readers and in no wise denotes the paper's opinion on or sympathy with any question involved.

Editor Daily Independent:—

In the matter of the Third Class city act which was so ably defended in your paper last evening, explaining the merits of this issue, it seems to me that they are misleading, as the commission form of government, as adopted by the western cities, is entirely different to the one which is advocated by our esteemed citizen. No Some persons would for a moment question the merits of a commission form of government, but the Clark act does not afford or pretend to offer any relief from our present form of carrying out the system in vogue.

On the contrary, it does devise ways and means for building up one of the strongest political machines the borough has ever been cursed with. and this idea in view raises the question who is going to be the "Moses" to lead us out of our present dilema?

It seems to me that some one has seen a vision and is trying to convince the public that there is a political star, and me for that star at the expense of the dear tax paying public. Come boys, rally around my support, and I will lead you by the still waters of a political reformation Mr Clark the father of this bill, says that this bill is a failure, but we can take it in hand and make it work with mystery and charm.

We trust that a better defense of the bill will be set up than the one that was given in your yesterday's issue, or else let us reflect and ponder well before we plunge the taxpayers into a lot of unnecessary expense to satisfy the desire of some self aggrandizement. We want the true facts on the difference between a commision form of government and that which is espoused by our statesman and fellow townsman With these facts in mind, I will withold my vote and appreciation of the system of government we will be forced to adopt other than the government adopted in Galveston, Texas, or any of the western cities.

Yours Respectfully,
"Mystery."

Editor Independent:—

I would ask Mr Reamer if his commission form of government down in Texas would apply to the Monessen Board of Health? If it will rip them out of office, I believe it would be a good thing. We might have a cleaner town J. P.

BOWLING

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
